AMIT

- Using the DIO in the AVR make a LED OUT.
- Make a simple code that blinks the led in two ways by using bitwise operators

Note that

- You have to upload your project and your proteus simulation file
- presents your program working in proteus.
- You have to follow the modular programing concept that you have taken during the c sessions.